Prison Worship November 16

Our next Lino Lakes prison worship is on Friday, November 16. The sign-up sheet is posted. If you have ideas for a worship theme, talk to Craig Lilja. If you've never gone before, think about joining us this time!

We'll have a rehearsal on Wednesday, November 14 at 6 pm, preceding our regular praise team rehearsal.

Alternate Praise Team

We're scheduled for November 25 with our "alternate praise team." This would be a great time to encourage someone new to give singing or playing a try. (Band members, I may need your help if no one new comes forward...)

Due to the Thanksgiving Holiday, we'll probably have to practice on Saturday morning that week rather than Wednesday.

Christmas is Coming...

Hard to believe that Christmas is just over two months away. If you have any special music in mind for Advent or Christmas Eve, please let me know! A favorite song you'd like us to include this year...a new song for us to learn...all ideas welcome.
